

Ukie CIM Digital Marketing for Games Course

FAQ's

Q. Is the course I have selected the right level for me based on my role / work experience?

A. Have a conversation to discuss the delegate's level of experience within their role / experience. Depending on the outcome, this will determine whether the delegate should be on an Advanced or Masterclass level course.

Q. What is the cost for a course?

A. Prices differ for Advanced and Masterclass courses and will depend on whether you wish to book a residential or non-residential option.

Q. Is there availability on a course?

A. Courses are capped at a maximum number of 15 delegates so availability needs to be checked and advised accordingly.

Q. When will I receive the invoice and joining instructions for the course?

A. Once a copy of the purchase order or direct payment has been received; an invoice will be emailed straight away. Joining instructions for the course will be emailed two to three weeks prior to the course start date.

Q. How can I book the course?

A. Courses can either be booked online via www.ukie.info or via <http://bookwhen.com/ukiedigimarketing> or by contacting the sales team direct on 0207 534 0580.

Verbal bookings are held as provisional until written confirmation is received.

Q. Do you have more information about the course for example, the agenda of the day?

A. Yes the agenda and detailed information about the course can be emailed directly to you (this can also be found in the documents section of Bookwhen site).
