

MOONHUB

A new frontier in training

D&I Training

In partnership with Róisín Wood

We're excited to bring you The MOONHUB\(suite\); vital, world-class, off-the-shelf VR training solutions at a price point that obliterates the need for expensive external partnership. This means we're able to bring our much talked about training, used by the best and biggest brands, to you, right to your virtual doorstep.

We've launched our suite with D&I training, which has been curated in partnership with Róisín Wood, former CEO of Kick It Out. Kick It Out is English football's equality and inclusion organisation.

Our VR training platform gives you access to:

- Real-time data and analytics from performance
- Gamified leaderboards and scorekeeping
- Compact and CPD certified learning material
- Frequently updated content
